You're Invited!

This year's Women In Leadership event is hosted by Amy Fowler from Lewis & Fowler and Pete Dignan from ProtoTest, and sponsored by Microsoft. Margo Karston of Exempla Saint Joseph Hospital is the keynote speaker. Panelists include Jane Okun, Senior Vice President and Chief Customer Process Officer from Information Handling Services and Andrea Young, Chief Technology Officer from Janus Capital Group. More to be announced... AT this event you will be treated to appetizers, desserts and cocktails as well as a great opportunity to network with other women in leadership.

Margo A. Karsten, MSN, PhD Candidate
Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Exempla Saint Joseph Hospital

As Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Margo Karsten is responsible for day-to-day operations for Exempla Saint Joseph Hospital. In addition, she also coordinates the strategic planning process.

Margo is an experienced health care administrator and consultant. Prior to joining Exempla, Margo was president of her own consulting firm and helped organizations improve their work environment, achieve employee engagement and prepare for the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award review.

Margo served as President and CEO of Poudre Valley Hospital, a not-for-profit 295-bed tertiary regional medical center in Fort Collins. Prior to that, she was Chief Operating Officer and Vice President of Nursing for Poudre Valley Health System, a multi-hospital system serving Northern Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska. Margo also served as Chief Nursing Officer at the Medical Center of Aurora and was Director of Nursing Management Services at Presbyterian Healthcare Services.
